- BEAR FAMILY'S deluxe first time ever vinyl reissue of this essential and extremely hard-to-find album, originally released on BELL RECORDS in 1973.
- Country, Soul and Funk: "Cosmic American Music."
- Dan Penn produced The Letter by the Box Tops and co-wrote classic soul hits with Chips Moman or Spooner Oldham like The Dark End Of The Street, Do Right Woman Do Right Man, I Met Her In Church, and Sweet Inspiration.
- Many consider him the greatest white Soul singer, ever!
- Beyond all question: essential!
- 180 gram vinyl re-issue with gatefold sleeve. Original artwork.

INFORMATION

Vinyl reissue of Country-Soul icon and ingenious songwriter Dan Penn's debut album, originally released on BELL RECORDS in 1973, a favorite of serious music lovers. Although not containing any of his popular 1960s trademark songs, 'Nobody's Fool' presents a great deal of moving tunes like the hardcore honky tonk jewel Tearjoint, or the extra tough I Hate You.

Mixed and produced by Dan Penn
