SALES NOTES

Those who know German will recognize that Paul Wuerges' last name means 'strangler,' but he's an axe-man, not a strangler, and the only thing he has killed is audiences. And he's still killin' 'em ... he's a cult figure, even now at 75 years old!

Born in Munich in 1932, this outstanding soloist never landed a chart hit in his 60 year career, but has gained a status at least equal to far more popular German rock 'n' rollers such as Ted Herold, Tommy Kent and Peter Kraus. Our first Paul Wuerges CD, 'Die Rock 'n' Roll Legende aus München' (BCD 16657), caused such a stir among collectors that we definitely HAD to release a follow-up – and here it is, exclusively available once again through Bear Family!

Fans and collectors will find stunning instrumentals, German language songs, an Olympic Melody (that began back in 1964 as Olympic Nights), and a unique rock 'n' roll feel that has earned Paul Wuerges the nickname of 'The German Bill Haley.' This truly marvellous guitarist played with The Bavarian Playboys, The Thunderbirds, The Watusis, The Hitparaders, and by himself under the name 'Jeff Jackson.' Here are 22 more examples of his outstanding ability as a guitarist. He's still touring, but this CD is a priceless memento of his classic 1960s recordings, like Twist Around The Clock !
