SALES NOTES

Bear Family's third Don Gibson boxed set covers the period from 1966 to 1969, the final years of his RCA Victor contract. Don was searching for direction, while producing some of the most consistently innovative music of his career. These 4 CDs include all the groundbreaking late Sixties LPs, 'All My Love,' 'The King Of Country Soul,' 'More Country Soul,' 'All Time Country Gold,' and the fabulous duets with Dottie West. All the hits from this period are featured, including Funny Familiar Forgotten Feelings, Rings Of Gold, and There's A Story, together with some previously unreleased recordings. By the close of his RCA contract, Don was slowly turning his life around, recovering from drug and alcohol addictions, but his problems had led him to neglect his songwriting. In place of his own songs, he reinterpreted his favorites from long ago, and took songs from some of the hottest new writers in Nashville, including Mickey Newbury. In the midst of changing times, his music remained as challenging as always. As a bonus the set includes a complete CD with six late-1950s radio shows.

The 40-page book includes an essay by Stuart Colman, who conducted the last interview with Gibson, as well as rare photos from the Gibson family archives, and a complete discography by Richard Weize.
