INFORMATION

In a career that started in 1953 and continues to this day, Pat Boone had 60 Top 100 chart entries in the U.S. between 1955 and 1969. In the U.K., he charted over two dozen hits from 1955 to 1962. Through most of those years, he ran second only to Elvis!

His rock 'n' roll titles have now been collected together on a 34 track volume in Bear Family's justly acclaimed 'Rocks' series. Now here is the companion volume that has been assembled to focus on his ballad, teen and hit recordings. It features an appealing and listenable mix of hit singles and rare album tracks (many only previously reissued on Bear Family's two Boone box sets, 'The Fifties Complete' and 'The Sixties: 1960-62').

Among the gems on offer here are I'll Be Home, Don't Forbid Me, Love Letters In The Sand, A Wonderful Time Up There (aka Gospel Boogie), Bernadine, I Almost Lost My Mind, Gee Whittakers, Gee, But It's Lonely, April Love, Lover's Lane, Speedy Gonzales, Johnny Will and Moody River.

As with the 'Rocks' volume this one, too comes in an open out digipac format and features all those usual Bear Family high standard trademarks, a booklet with abundant photographs together with discography of the tracks included.
