SALES NOTES

Eddie Clethro had one of the most unusual careers in western music. Based in Los Angeles, he had no hit records, but he did have a great voice and a great band – the Roundup Boys -- and several of his recordings have long been highly sought after among collectors, particularly the great, rocking double-sider from 1952, First Class, Second Hand Woman b/w Flying Saucer Boogie. Clethro achieved his greatest popularity in the early to mid-1950s, at a point when western music and western swing bands were generally out of favor, but he and the Roundup Boys went from strength to strength in this transitional era.

'Flying Saucer Boogie' gathers all of Eddie Clethro's recordings for Lariat, Imperial, Sage and Sand, including the classic, First Class, Second Hand Woman, Daniel Boone and others. In addition, the set contains Clethro and the Roundup Boys ably supporting western star Eddie Dean on his 1956 Rock 'n' Roll Cowboy and several amazing tracks the band made backing California scene legend Rose Maddox, including the rocking classics Wild, Wild Young Men and Hey Little Dreamboat. Also heard is Clethro's 1952 session in support of the King Of Yodelers, Canadian Donn Reynolds, and even the Christmas disc that Clethro made with his daughter Diane in 1955, Santa Claus, Jr.
