- Formed in 1936, the Chuck Wagon Gang still perform grassroots Gospel songs the way 'Dad' Carter taught his kids.
- They recorded more than 800 songs and sold 40 million records worldwide.
- This set compiles the complete recordings with founder 'Dad' Carter from 1936 - 1955 including outtakes, alternative takes and rarities.
- Accompanying book features essays by Bill C. Malone, Eddie Stubbs, Harold Timmons and group member Shaye Smith, plus rare pictures and illustrations from The Chuck Wagon Gang's own private archives.
- Foreword by Marty Stuart.

FROM THE FOREWORD:

"At the dawn of the 1930s
God spoke and called forth from the Texas dust a sound... a sound that will forever be known as that of the Chuck Wagon Gang."

How beautiful those harmonies must have sounded as the sun was setting into the west. The words and music were surely a healing balm for a weary people. Heaven only knows how many hearts have been touched by their music.

Now, well into the twenty-first century, we can still gather around the Chuck Wagon Gang and have the privilege of hearing them sing heaven's songs of peace, hope and promise to all of us migrants living in this loud, clattering world below.

Marty Stuart
